

A Mid-Peninsula Recorder Orchestra Workshop

Adam Gilbert, Director

Villain et Courtoise:
Rustic and Bawdy Songs
Dressed in Courtly Finery

Saturday, January 31, 2015
9:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.
Holy Trinity Episcopal Church
330 Ravenswood Ave.
Menlo Park

The workshop will explore how simple popular songs of the late Middle Ages and Renaissance, often with bawdy lyrics, were transformed by the great composers of the day, such as Antoine Busnois, Josquin Desprez and Henricus Isaac, into elegant courtly love songs, sacred motets, and even Masses using the intricate polyphony of the late 15th and early 16th centuries. The workshop is open to recorder players from the intermediate to advanced level.

Adam Gilbert has performed with several outstanding early music ensembles in the United States, Latin America and Europe on recorder and historical double reeds and is a founding member of Ciaramella, which specializes in the performance of 15th-century music. He is currently on the faculty of the University of Southern California where he teaches early music performance and is Director of the Early Music Program.
