

SFEMS Valentine's Day Collegium 2015

Venetian Baroque

A Collegium Workshop with

Linda Pearse

for recorders, early brass & winds, strings, and singers

Saturday, February 14, 2015 • 9AM – 4PM (Registration at 8:30
Ready to play at 9)

Eden United Church of Christ, 21455 Birch Street, Hayward

About the Workshop

FROM ABOUT 1550 TO 1700, Venice was regarded as one of the most important musical cities in Europe. Beginning in 1527, music making in the city flourished for nearly two centuries. Ensembles grew in size, performances became more frequent, foreign students came to study with esteemed masters, and renowned composers took positions at the city's musical centers. Music played a central role in Venetian society, celebrating the city's greatest attributes: its economic prosperity, its cultural greatness, and its emphases on religious brotherhood and civic pride. We will be studying and playing double-, triple-, and quadruple-choir works by Andrea and Giovanni Gabrieli, Adrian Willaert, as well as works by their German colleagues, Hans Leo Hassler, Michael Praetorius, and others. Come enjoy a fun-filled day playing and singing this beautiful repertoire.

Bring instruments (PITCH: A=440), music stand, and bag lunch. Music is included in workshop fee; PDFs will be available online after January 15. Snacks and beverages will be provided for breaks. A MAP TO THE CHURCH IS ON THE BACK OF THIS FLYER. For more information, contact Katie Hagen, SFEMS Administrator: khagen@sfems.org or 510-842-5256.
